

The Appliqué Guild Australia Inc.

Appliqué for all!

Mission Statement

The principle objective of the Guild is to promote the art and craft of traditional and contemporary appliqué in quilting and other textile art forms to members and the public.

To encourage and maintain high standards of workmanship, design and teaching and to foster and maintain an interest in the history of appliqué.

We aim to promote mutual aid and common interest amongst members through education, research, technical assistance, consultation and fellowship.
